Standard Administrative Procedure Statement

This procedure is set forth to provide guidance on the proper process for the appropriate review of all new, reclassified or budgeted and temporary/casual positions by the appropriate Human Resources unit. This procedure does not apply to faculty positions or student positions (including graduate assistants).

The responsible Human Resources unit is based on the type of position: The Division of Human Resources and Organizational Effectiveness (HROE) is responsible for staff positions. The Division of Research is responsible for non-faculty research positions (including Texas A&M University at Galveston). Texas A&M University at Galveston (TAMUG) Human Resources is responsible for TAMUG staff positions.

Official Procedure

1. SYSTEM-WIDE PAY PLAN (SWPP) AND EXCLUDED POSITIONS:

   1.1 Creating New Positions:

      Requests for creation of new positions may require prior budget approval through administrative channels before being initiated in Workday.
1.1.1 Texas A&M and Division of Research Positions: Requests for new positions will be initiated by submitting a Create Position business process request in Workday. The appropriate Human Resources unit will conduct a job study and will approve the request in Workday. The Vice President for Research or designee serves as the approver for non-faculty research positions. The Create Position will route through appropriate channels to the Executive Approver. Once the position is successfully completed, a position ID and title is created.

1.1.1.1 Texas A&M Health Science Center (Academic): Approval (obtained outside of Workday) is required from the Dean or designee before the Create Position business process is initiated in Workday. Documentation will be submitted to hschr@tamu.edu.

1.1.1.2 Documentation for the Create Position business process in Workday will include the Position Description Template.

1.1.1.2.1 Texas A&M Positions: Workday Position Description Template.

1.1.1.2.2 Division of Research Positions: Workday Position Description Template for Research positions

1.1.2 System-wide Pay Plan Positions: The appropriate Human Resources unit approves the full lower band range of the position’s pay grade. The Vice President for Research or designee approves the full lower, middle, and upper band ranges of applicable research positions.

1.1.3 Excluded Positions: The appropriate Human Resources unit approves a salary range based on relevant external market data, comparable internal positions, or other factors relevant to the newly created position. The Vice President for Research or designee serves as the approver for non-faculty research positions.

1.2 Reclassifying Positions:

Requests for reclassifications of positions may require prior budget approval through administrative channels before being initiated in Workday. Current employees being proposed for reclassification must possess the minimum qualifications for the position as described in the position description. Employees are eligible for reclassification after employment in their present position for three (3) months. Exceptions to the three (3) month limitation may be authorized by the Vice President for HROE or designee for Texas A&M and the Division of Research. For TAMUG, exceptions may be approved by the Chief Operating Officer (COO) of TAMUG.

1.2.1 Texas A&M and Division of Research Positions: Requests for reclassification of an existing position will be initiated by submitting an Edit Position Restrictions business process request in Workday. The appropriate Human Resources unit will conduct a job study to determine the appropriate title and salary for the position and will approve the request in Workday. The Vice President for Research or designee serves as the approver for non-faculty research positions. The Edit Position Restrictions business process will not route to the Department Head for approval. A Change Job business process request is needed if the position is filled to change the employee’s job profile/title and salary approved by the appropriate Human Resources unit on the Edit Position Restrictions request. The Change Job business process request will route through appropriate channels to the Executive Approver.

1.2.1.1 Texas A&M Health Science Center: Approval (obtained outside of Workday) is required from the Dean or designee before the Edit Position Restrictions business process is initiated in Workday. Documentation will be submitted to hschr@tamu.edu.

1.2.1.2 Division of Research: For research titles, a request memorandum must be forwarded through appropriate channels, including deans or directors, to the Vice President for Research.

1.2.1.3 Documentation for the Edit Position Restrictions business process in Workday will include the Workday Position Description Template.

1.2.1.3.1 Texas A&M: Workday Position Description Template

1.2.1.3.2 Division of Research: Workday Position Description Template for Research positions and attach a resume or curriculum vitae.

1.2.2 For salary guidance for filled positions, refer to section 6 of University Rule 31.01.01.M7, Employee Compensation Administration.

1.2.3 System-wide Pay Plan Vacant Positions: The appropriate Human Resources unit approves the full lower band range of the position’s pay grade. The Vice President for Research or designee approves the full lower, middle, and upper band ranges of applicable research positions.
1.2.4 Excluded Vacant Positions: The appropriate Human Resources unit approves a salary range based on the vacant position’s current budgeted rate, relevant external market data, comparable internal positions, or other factors relevant to the position. The Vice President for Research or designee serves as the approver for non-faculty research positions.

1.3 TAMUG Positions: Request for Creating and Reclassifying Non-Faculty Positions, must have the approval of TAMUG Human Resources and the COO of TAMUG. TAMUG Research positions must also be approved by the Vice President for Research or designee.

2. TEMPORARY/CASUAL POSITIONS:

Employees in a Temporary/Casual position can work 50% or more FTE for 4.5 months max within the same fiscal year per System Regulation 33.99.05, Part-Time Employment.

2.1 Creating New Positions:

2.1.1 Texas A&M and Division of Research Positions: Requests for new positions will be initiated by submitting a Create Position business process request in Workday. The appropriate Human Resources unit will conduct a minimal review and will approve the request in Workday. The Vice President for Research or designee serves as the approver for non-faculty research positions. The Create Position will route through appropriate channels to the Executive Approver. Once the position is successfully completed, a position ID and title is created.

2.1.2 Pay rates for Temporary/Casual positions should be appropriate for the SWPP title and pay grade (if applicable) being used and may be subject to review by the appropriate Human Resources unit.

2.2 Reclassifying Positions:

2.2.1 Texas A&M and Division of Research Positions: Requests for reclassification of an existing temporary/casual position will be initiated by submitting an Edit Position Restrictions business process request in Workday. The appropriate Human Resources unit will conduct a minimal review to determine the appropriate title and salary for the position and will approve the request in Workday. The Vice President for Research or designee serves as the approver for non-faculty research positions. The Edit Position Restrictions request will not route to the Department Head for approval. A Change Job business process request is needed if the position is filled to change the employee’s job profile/title and salary approved by the appropriate Human Resources unit on the Edit Position Restrictions request. The Change Job request will route through appropriate channels to the Executive Approver.

2.2.1.1 Division of Research: For research positions, a request memorandum must be forwarded through appropriate channels, including deans or directors, to the Vice President for Research.

2.3 Pay rates for Temporary/Casual positions should be appropriate for the SWPP title and pay grade (if applicable) being used and may be subject to review by the appropriate Human Resources unit.

2.4 TAMUG Positions: Request for Creating and Reclassifying Non-Faculty Positions, must have the approval of TAMUG Human Resources and the COO of TAMUG. TAMUG Research positions must also be approved by the Vice President for Research or designee.
